As for ancient records we have not any before the burning of the derry wch was about 14 yeares agone neither would they be needfull to distinguish the churches presentative from others seinye all in this diocese are presentative expting the two peculiers of dongeven and Dighgeve /

Neither have there bene ame alienations charges and incombraines to the preiudice of the incumbents /

Schooles

As touching schooles it is well knowne that his mat intended a convenient proporcion of lands as well for London derry as for Dongannon or donegall yett both these have fayre proporcions allotted unto them for the maynetenance of schooles But the lands intended for the schooles at lo derry are swallowed up I knowe not ~~by~~ well by whome, but the generall surveyer is the lickliest to know what is become of them. Notwithstanding there is a fayre schoole house built at London derry Mathias Springham Marchant Taylor of London, and the ditty of London hath assigned a yearly stipend of 20. marks to be given to the schoolmaster but ou gracious kings grant is suppressed /

Concerning lands or goods given to good uses we have a worthy presedent of Sr Hansard kt deceased, who departed this life about the 4th of october Ao 1619 he by his last will and testament (the executors whereof he appoynted to be Sr John vaughan kt Sr George Marbury kt and Thomas perkins esqr) hath ordayned that after his debts payd there should be a faire church built in Lifford by his executors who have accordingly layd the foundation thereof And after the building of the church he hath apoynted that a schoole shalbe ~~made~~ built, with houses for the master and usher, and that they shall have for ever a yearly stipend of 50 lb he hath also by his last will bequethed a salary of 20 lb per annum to be given to the warden of Lifford for the time being, and 10 lb yearly to the recorder or Townecleark and 6 lb 13 s 4 d to two sergeants, wch salaryes are to be payd after a charter of mortmaine shalbe procured

Jurisdicton

Besides the Jurisdicton exercised by my chancellor and officiall there is a Jurisdiction usurped by authority from Rome, to the greate disonor of god hinderance of religion and shame of the governement /
